10 v.

11 MIDVALE INDEMNITY COMPANY, et al.,
12 Defendants.

Case No.: 2:21-cv-01793-GMN-NJK

Order

[Docket No. 11]

13 Pending before the Court is the parties' proposed discovery plan, in which the parties seek 14 a discovery period greater than the presumptively reasonable 180 days from September 28, 2021,
15 the date this case was removed to this Court. Docket No. 11. Requests for special scheduling
16 review must include "a statement on the reasons why longer or different time periods should apply
17 to the case..." Local Rule 26-1(a). The parties attempt to justify their request for a 254-day 18 discovery period by stating that the underlying claims might require subpoenaing documents from 19 a number of state agencies and potentially conducting depositions. Docket No. 11 at 2-3.

20 The parties fail to provide meaningful discussion as to why this case requires a discovery
21 period significantly longer than the presumptively reasonable discovery period. Without further
22 elaboration, the Court is not persuaded that the requested discovery period is reasonable in this
23 case. Accordingly, the discovery plan is DENIED without prejudice. Docket No. 11. The parties
24 must file an amended discovery plan no later than November 22, 2021.

25 IT IS SO ORDERED.

26 Dated: November 16, 2021
